A QUEER REGENERATION.

Yes, it is true that Mr. C. M. Pendleton has flunked, but what the cause? We will not attempt to answer or give reason, because it is the privilege of every man beneath the protection of the American flag, to change his opinions as often as the sun rises, but ere he changes, he should have some valid reasons for the change. We sincerely hope that Mr. Pendleton has these reasons. Really, in justice to himself and the people of Ohio county, who honored him as their County Attorney, and candidate for Congress, and in justice to the Republican administration that gave him a $1,500 position for four years, Mr. Pendleton owes the public his reasons for having stranded on the present high water mark of prosperity.

From an interview with THE REPUBLICAN, he does not appear to be against the Philippine war, and he is far from holding anything against Gen. Taylor. We should be very glad to understand this mystery for our readers' sake, however, it is not compulsory, but it is due those honest men who have supported him in the past. If we are wrong, heaven knows we desire to be righted, and it might be possible that the same cause which brought about this political regeneration of Mr. Pendleton would convert THE REPUBLICAN, its editors and its many readers. We are indeed unable to see how Mr. Pendleton can be for Goebel, when he stated in the presence of three of Hartford's best citizens, that he was a door neighbor to Mrs. John Sandford, the widow of the murdered man, and that Mrs. Sandford was and had been since the killing of her husband, John L. Sandford, a total wreck mentally and physically. He further stated that there were at least 500 Democrats in Kenton county that would vote against William Goebel. But in spite of the knowledge of the condition of the insane woman and the personal knowledge of the cause, he declares that he will cast his first vote for a fit commander of the Rebel Hosts in Hades.

IF IT BE "BILLINGSGATE" MAKE THE MOST OF IT.

The Hartford Herald of Wednesday characterizes itself again with another article brim full, from beginning to end, of fraud, falsehood and knavery. The Herald poses as an advocate of honor, honesty and fairness alike in journalism and politics to all of which honest men, knowing what THE REPUBLICAN said last week and the Herald's slanderous reply of this week, would except and declare that the author of the Herald's article is neither heir in whole nor in part to any of the traits mentioned and neither does he manifest any love for or desire to protect either.

The Herald was challenged to an honest and fair discussion of the Goebel election law, which was refused, for the reason, it said, that the Goebel law was a part of the organic law of the commonwealth and that the editors of THE REPUBLICAN only referred to that sheet in coarse abuse and billingsgate. Its excuse was a makeshift from beginning to end, as false as ever fell from human lips. The repeated falsehoods that continue to succeed themselves in the columns of the Herald have provoked us to express in unmistakable terms the plain truth which we are prepared to defend with pen or otherwise. A goat in sheep's clothing is a goat still, a base and corrupt maligner of truth is false and corrupt still, it matters not how much he may slander another or attempt to conceal truth with falsehood or prate of his high calling and the rectitude of his purpose. "Outward shows be least themselves."

From the last issue of THE REPUBLICAN, under an article entitled "A Little More Truth," the Herald took from the middle of a paragraph, leaving out that which immediately preceded and followed, a sentence for its text. The comment which followed was not upright, but wrong, intentionally wrong. It quoted: "Under the old law the County Judges who appointed the election officers were chosen from among the best citizens of the Commonwealth, while to carry out the spirit and intention of the Goebel law, the men who appoint the election officers cannot be upright and honest men of our best citizens," and omitted "The authority for this statement is Trimble's letter to Thompson." Trimble says in his letter to Thompson:

"Our county is all right—safely Democratic, but city elections cannot be won with a fair count, and you know that as well as I do. Incompetent, unreliable Republican judges will have to be appointed. The right of the Republicans to indicate who shall represent them as judges, etc., will have to be ignored, and the Election Commissioners will have to do this, or receive the ill-will of the city Democrats."

Commenting on the sentence referred to above, the Herald said: "The Ohio county board is composed of Messrs. B. D. Ringo, H. P. Taylor and J. S. R. Wedding (the latter a well known Republican.) THE REPUBLICAN says the parties named cannot be good, upright and honest men of our best citizens."

THE REPUBLICAN never said anything of the kind, neither intimated one single disrespectful word relative to the gentlemen referred to. The Herald knew that its unmanly statement was a makeshift, a base fabrication, a falsehood, in toto, pure and simple. If this is billingsgate, make the most of it. Purify your wicked heart, teach your wayward pen the way of light and you may enjoy the sunshine of a clear conscience.

CHRISTIANS AT WORK.

The dissatisfaction of the Christian people with William Goebel and his vile methods has extended to every church denomination in the State. The Baptist church commenced the warfare against the usurpations of Mr. Goebel and has been joined by every church order in the State. The Methodist conference in Eastern Kentucky denounced Goebel and many of the ministers are preaching his condemnation from the pulpit. The Christian church is arrayed against him and his outlaws.

Rev. J. L. Hill, of Madisonville, preached a strong sermon to his congregation last Sunday week denouncing Goebel and his armed henchmen. Another Baptist Association has set the seal of doom upon the Louisville ticket. The North Concord Association, composed of Knox and Bell counties, passed the following denunciatory resolutions unanimously:

"Resolved, That we condemn the action of the General Association of Kentucky Baptists in condemning the action of William Goebel, State Senator from Kenton county, Ky., in preventing the passage of the county local option bill, drawn by the influence of the Interdenominational League, of which Dr. F. H. Kerfoot, of Louisville, was Chairman, and call upon all Christian men to use all honorable means to bring about the defeat of Wm. Goebel for Governor of Kentucky, believing his election will endanger the temperance cause in general; be it further

"Resolved, That we commend the manly stand taken by Dr. Kerfoot, with others, to get said local option bill passed."

THOUGHTS FROM A MINISTER.

A minister, from a neighboring county, who had been in his field of labor, passed through Hartford Monday on his homeward journey. This reverend brother has seen the hill tops covered with the snows of more than sixty winters. He has witnessed the stormy scenes of the civil conflict in the services of the cause of freedom. He has stood in the pulpit for more than forty years and has never permitted himself to enter politics farther than to cast his vote, as all honest citizens should do, and in all his career he has cast two Republican votes and they were both for his neighbors. He emphasizes the fact that he is a Democrat, but absolutely refuses to vote for Goebel, and so expresses himself from the pulpit. And says matters now are, that he will undoubtedly vote for Gen. Taylor.

If all the ministers of the gospel in Kentucky would consider aright, it is our opinion, that not a single minister would be on the side of Goebel, which means all but Christianity. His deeds and past life cannot be held up before the young men of Kentucky as a guide for their future and the minister who attempts this brands himself as a vagabond and a curse to the cause of his Master. But, thanks to the Creator, we have only a very few of such ministers in the pulpits in Kentucky.

The church took up the cause of freedom for the blacks in the recent past and certainly they will maintain that for which they were partially divided. To-day the liberty of every man in Kentucky, both white and black, is seriously threatened. This statement is disputed by men of politics, but when ministers of the Gospel, who have really never scratched the ticket of their choice, declare that the liberty of the people is threatened, there is certainly some force in the statement. These are facts and no Christian gentleman dares deny it. That man is right who defends right whatever his vocation of life may be.

GOEBEL is already defeated by the public sentiment, and his only hope rests in his ability to count himself in the Governor's chair.

A Subscriber's Letter.

Hartford, Ky., Sept. 22, 1899
Editor of THE REPUBLICAN:—Please allow an old soldier space in your columns to notice an editorial which appeared in the columns of the Hartford Herald under date of September 13th. The editorial referred to is as follows and an insult to all old soldiers:

"The Pension Committee of the Grand Army of the Republic in session last week reported a resolution favoring the abrogation of Rule 225 passed by Congress and the re-instatement of Rule 164, which makes it less difficult to establish pension claims."

From the above editorial we conclude that the Herald would make it appear that the G. A. R. Reunion Committee recommends the abolition of Rule 225 and the re-instatement of Rule 164 for the sole purpose of allowing the old soldiers to make a whole sale raid and loot the Treasury.

Now this editorial was either penned through ignorance or malice, and judging from the Herald's past slurs and insinuations concerning the old soldiers and the pensions paid to them by a grateful and patriotic nation, we conclude that the editor is pretty well stocked up with both ignorance and malice. He says Rules 225, which Congress passed, is well known by all who care to know that the Secretary of the Interior formulates Rules and Regulations by which the Commissioner of Pensions is governed in the administration of the Pension Board and that Congress has no more to do with Rule 225 or any other Rule than a hog has to do with the Sabbath.

Yet the Herald would make it appear that the old soldiers want to trample under foot Rules and Regulations formulated and put in action by Congress for the purpose of looting the Treasury as he says, of $60,000,000 yearly.

Rule 164 was formulated and put in action by Secretary Noble under the Harrison administration and is the Rule under which Gen. Green B. Raum administered the affairs of the Pension Board. On Mr. Cleveland's coming into office he called to the Secretaryship of the Interior, one Hoke Smith, of Atlanta, Ga., he it was who formulated Rule 225 and set aside Rule 164 thereby making it almost impossible for the Commissioner of Pensions to comply with the law. No, no, Mr. Herald all the old soldier wants is justice, and all they ask is that Hoke Smithism and Clevelandism may be relegated to the rear and the past where the people put them in '96, and that this relic of Hoke Smith, Rule 225, which the editor of the Herald holds so dear to his little heart, may be swept into the gutter and that the law may be administered in the same spirit that prompted the Representatives in Congress of a proud, generous and patriotic people.

COLORED VOTERS, LET US REASON TOGETHER.

We have no better way of judging the future than by the past, and in judging by the past record of the Democratic party, what hope has negro for favor or justice from that party to justify them to assist in the elevation of the Democrats above the only party that ever favored the negro by any legislation. Remember the Dred Scott decision in which a Democratic judge said that a "negro had no rights that white man was bound to respect." The fugitive slave law, which not only allowed a former master to go into a free State for the purpose of capturing an escaped slave, but compelled white men, who were opposed to slavery, to assist in such capture. The 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the Constitution of the United States were passed by the Republicans against the united opposition of the Democratic party, thus giving the negroes of the United States three of the grandest blessings that any Government or party can bestow upon man, viz: "Liberty, citizenship and the right to vote." But the great objects of dissatisfaction among the negroes at present are the Separate Coach Law and the distribution of pie. As to the Separate Coach Law, I would have you ask yourselves, "who passed that law?" It was passed by a Democratic Legislature, over the opposition of the Republican members save two exceptions, and signed by a Democratic Governor, and has been approved by every Democratic speaker in Kentucky. John Young Brown signed the bill. And Senator Goebel says that he is opposed to repealing the Separate Coach Law.

As to a distribution of pie, do you hope for that at the hands of the Democratic party? If so, remember the wrangle in the Democratic caucus at Frankfort, when J. H. Ely, (who was a negro), was a Democratic candidate for cloak room keeper of the Legislature in 1897, when many Democrats said they would vote for a yellow dog before they would vote for a negro.

Next, notice the poll tax law, which required every voter to produce a receipt for his poll tax, properly signed by the sheriff of his county for the year preceding the election, before he would be allowed to vote. This measure would have disfranchised many negro voters in Kentucky. There were 60 Democratic members that voted for this measure, but not one single Republican voted for it.

With the past history of the Democratic party for a guide, what can the negro hope for or expect from their hands? But it seems that all of the instruments of political warfare are brought to bear upon Gen. W. S. Taylor. For what? I fail to find, upon investigation, a single instance where he has shown any hostility to the negro. On the contrary, I find him upon one occasion at the Morgantown jail with a few other companions risking his life in defending a helpless negro prisoner from the violence of an infuriated mob. Some will say, "Oh, that was nothing more than his duty to do so." Yes, but alas, how many fail to do their duty, especially toward a negro? Furthermore, when George Dinning fired on that mob in defense of his home and killed one of its members, and was tried by a prejudiced jury and sentenced to seven years in prison in the penitentiary, Gen. Taylor wrote a letter to Gov. Bradley with his official seal affixed thereto asking him (Gov. Bradley), to pardon Dinning at once upon his conviction, and not to allow him to undergo the disgrace of being incarcerated within the walls of the State prison. Taylor's position on the Separate Coach Law has been openly declared and that he is opposed to the Separate Coach Law. As to pie, Taylor assisted in electing Mat Johnson, a negro, janitor of the State house at Frankfort in 1897. It has been said that it was only a place of labor. Well, it paid four dollars per day and no honest man should be ashamed to work. Besides, it was all that the party had to give, for you remember that the Democratic Senate failed to confirm the appointment of John W. Postell as Steward of the Hopkinsville Asylum.

Now, my colored friends, I hope that you will give some honest, sober thoughts to the history of the two parties and the men who represent their principles, remembering that one of those parties are going to be in power, and that it is the duty of every man to vote for that party whose principles best promote the welfare of his country and himself and not to be led astray by the false teachings of any Demagogue, though he be a man of your own race. Yours, most sincerely, for the upbuilding of the negro race,

S. M. TAYLOR.

CENTERTOWN, KY.

It sounds just like it, but this is a fact; Rensler Brothers' flour mill is grinding wheat and making good flour. This, you see, is another trust. Republican combine of brain, muscle and energy. Get out of the way you narrow minded anti expansionist and monopoly reformers.

A social was given our young people Saturday night at the home of P. H. Ross on Main street. Many were present and had an enjoyable time. Let's have another one? No serious sickness, but many are on the grunting list. Rogers Brothers, of Beaver Dam, were here last week with their well drilling machine and cleaned our public well nicely. If you want water start them after it.

The amateur detective is as humorous a character as any of Shakespeare's clowns, or even old Dogberry himself. He finds the most astonishing clues, and generally follows them until he brings up about as far away from the solution of the mystery as mortal well may be. But the specialist in the detection of crime, Sherlock Holmes, is a man who reads clues, as the Indian reads a trail. Every step he takes is a step to success.

It's much the same way in the detection of disease. While the amateur is blundering along over misleading symptoms, the specialist goes right to the real cause and puts an arresting hand upon the disease. It is in such a way that Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., succeeds in hunting out and arresting diseases, where the less experienced practitioners fail. More than thirty years of special study and experience have enabled Dr. Pierce to detect symptoms as easily and as truly as the Indian reads a trail which is without a hint for a less acute vision than his. Any sick person can consult Dr. R. V. Pierce by letter absolutely without charge. Each letter is read in private and answered in private. Its contents are held as secretly confidential. It is answered with fatherly feeling as well as medical skill and the reply is sent sealed in a perfectly plain envelope, that there may be no third party to the correspondence. Thousands have taken the first step to health by writing to Dr. Pierce. No writer ever regretted writing. Ninety-eight in every hundred treated have been positively cured. If you are afflicted with any old obstinate ailment write to-day, you will be one day nearer health. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. Lon Rogers, of Hartford, was in our town last Friday on special business. Come again, Mr. Rogers, we half way like believers of expansion.

We organized a debating society here last Friday night, Isaac Foster, Jr., President and H. H. Davis Vice President. We have one of the best societies in the country. If you do not think so, try us one round.

Mr. T. S. Woodward, one of our foremost young men and teachers, left last week to attend school at Richmond, Ky.

Miss Clara Paxton, who has been visiting relatives here for quite a while, left last Sunday for her home, in Louisville.

Mr. Chester Loney, of Central Grove school, H. H. Davis and Earl Davis attended the teachers association at Beaver Dam last Saturday. They report a pleasant time and good meeting, best one day meeting that has been held for years. The teachers as a general thing, appear to be trying to improve themselves in all particulars. Our schools will be better. Patrons why do you not visit your school and help your teacher do better work? Pupils and teachers are always glad to have visitors and receive words of comfort and cheer. Turn out and help in the work and let us have an educational revival in this county that will put us in the front ranks.

Sept. 18.—Quite a pall was cast over this entire community last week when it was announced that R. H. Daniel was dead. For four months he lingered between life and death. At times hope would seem to be in the ascendency and then in its turn would come despair till at last on the 12th inst at 6 o'clock p. m. the dark winged angel settled down upon his couch and R. H. Daniel was dead. To say that an honest man, a truthful man, a kind and obliging neighbor, a kind and an affectionate father and husband is gone, is but expressing it too feebly, for we have known R. H. Daniel intimately for 34 years and if he had an enemy in the world we have yet to hear or learn of it for the first time. Funeral services were held at the cemetery at the hour of interment. The bereaved family have the sincerest sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. C. M. Pendleton made THE REPUBLICAN a pleasant call Tuesday.
You are invited to attend Fair & Co's opening of millinery to-morrow.

"Good Beginnings" Make Good Endings."

You are making a good beginning when you commence to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for any trouble of your blood, stomach, kidneys or liver. Persistently taken, this great medicine will bring you the good ending of perfect health, strength and vigor.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

The people are surely getting hungry for sewing machines. Gross Williams says he sold ten drop head Singers last week.

If you come to the fair don't forget to bring your watch or anything in the jewelry line that needs repairing to A. E. Pate, jeweler.

Every lady in Ohio county is invited to attend the grand Millinery opening at R. T. Collins' dry goods store, Hartford, next Saturday.

Mrs. Will Fair returned Sunday from a visit to the Louisville Millinery Market where she purchased a nice line of goods for Fair & Co.

John Cox, colored, who broke into a box car at Horse Branch a few days ago, was captured in Louisville and lodged in Hartford jail yesterday.

To-day the colored people celebrate the anniversary of their Emancipation at the Fair Ground. All are invited to attend. Admission 10c.

Why will people buy "Cheap John" sewing machines when they can get the Singer for 10 cents a day?
GROSS WILLIAMS, Agent.

Mr. J. L. Rowe spent Sunday in Lettichfield and was accompanied home Monday by his wife, who has been with her parents for several weeks.

Miss Flora Marguerite Bertelle and Miss Mary Green Lawrence, of Louisville, will assist Miss Margaret Nell in a concert to be given in Hartford, September 29th, 1899.

For Wagons, Buggies and general Blacksmithing, Horseshoeing, etc., call on McHenry Manufacturing and Machine Co. They will make you prices to suit the times.

Mrs. Margaret Westbrooks was adjudged a lunatic Tuesday and Judge Miller appointed Mr. George Snell to convey her to Hopkinton Asylum, the home of the feeble minded.

Mr. Lon Hoover, of near Beda, lost his baby Friday night with flux. It was buried Saturday, at 1:30 o'clock, in the Hudson graveyard. We regret very much to learn of the sad news.

It is generally conceded that when it comes to Millinery, Mrs. Sara Collins Smith knows all about this business. Don't fail to see the grand opening display under her charge at R. T. Collins' big dry goods store next Saturday, the 23d.

When you come to Hartford if you have a watch, clock, a pair of spectacles or anything in the jewelry line that needs repairing, don't forget to bring it to A. E. Pate, Hartford's jeweler, and get it repaired. He guarantees all work to give satisfaction. Prices reasonable.

There has been a protracted meeting in progress at Green River church for the past week conducted by Revs. D. J. K. Maddox and son, Ed. From reports it is the best revival held in that church for many years. Twenty-one converts have been reported, one of which has been an arant infidel.

What is intended to be the most magnificent display of Millinery ever shown in Ohio county will be opened up at R. T. Collins' dry goods store next Saturday. Lovers of the beautiful in headware should not deny themselves the pleasure of being present.

On account of annual meeting of the Louisville Driving and Fair Association the I. C. R. Co., will sell tickets to Louisville and return at rate of one fare for round trip. Tickets on sale Sept. 25, 26, 27, 28, and 29th. Return limit Oct. 23 to 7th. S. B. VANMETER, Agent.

The musical entertainment to be given by Miss Margaret Nell September 29th, bids fair to be the greatest treat of the season. Miss Bertelle is a super-excellent dramatic, soprano, vocalist and would highly entertain the public herself, but with the assistance of Miss Lawrence, of Louisville, and Miss Nell, we pronounce it a grand success in advance.

Capt. John G. Keown and Mr. R. B. Martin are now in possession of the Likens & Ross Livery Stable by right of purchase and are prepared to give their friends the very best accommodations. These young men are worthy of success and we hope it may reach them upon a fair trial of their ability as Liverymen. They have the good wishes of everyone.

The Colored Teachers' Institute which was held Wednesday and Thursday of this week, was in many respects the best ever held in the county. Greater interest was manifested than in the previous Institute, and the teachers are seemingly more determined. The colored schools of the county are fast improving and it is hoped will soon be equal to any rural school.

Mrs. Eliza Jane Taylor, of the Clifty Sulphur Springs vicinity, lost her house and all its contents Sunday evening about 7 o'clock. She had kindled a fire in the stove preparatory to cooking supper and while out milking, the house caught fire from the flue of the stove, and when she returned the house was nearly consumed by the flames, so much so, that she was unable to save any of the household furniture, except a feather bed or two. It was indeed humiliating to lose all her possessions that she had saved during a lifetime, but she is more fortunate than many others. She has a new house just completed. The many friends of Mrs. Taylor will receive this news with sad and sympathetic hearts.

Mrs. S. E. Werner left yesterday for Galveston, Texas, where she will spend several weeks visiting her brother, Mr. H. D. Bennett. Mrs. Werner made THE REPUBLICAN a very pleasant call before leaving for her extended visit and asked that it should bear the news to her while absent. All persons leaving Hartford for an extended visit should follow Mrs. Werner's example.

Beaver Dam is a live town and her men are energetic and progressive, still they get dissatisfied and change their vocations as do other townsmen. Messrs. K. V. Williams and Edwin Cooper bought the lively stable owned by Messrs. J. M. Porter and Baz. Taylor Saturday and entered upon the business of the transfer Monday. We predict success for these gentlemen, since they are both up-to-date business men.

The Teachers' Association at Beaver Dam last Saturday was a splendid success. There were about sixty earnest working teachers present and all seemed to be imbued with the spirit of progression. No place is better adapted to the needs of the teacher than the Association, and every teacher, who absents himself from this body, commits a crime against himself and should be arraigned before his school as a reward for his carelessness. The schools of the county will never be graded unless the teachers co-operate and work for the same end.

To Wed October 18.

THE REPUBLICAN heralds the news to-day, to its host of readers, announcing the marriage of Mr. John T. Moore and Miss Mayme A. Ross. October 18th is the day set apart for the happy occasion. The day, on which man fulfills the divine law of his Creator, in claiming as his own, one of heaven's brightest jewels, is the crowning day of a lifetime.

"Sweet day, so pure, so calm, so bright, The bridal of the Earth and Sky!"

At 4 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, October 18th, 1899, the friends of the contracting parties will converge at the Methodist church in Hartford to behold the nuptial ceremonies of this popular young couple.

Mr. Moore is and has been assistant cashier in the Bank of Hartford for a number of years and his work has been of such character that he has riveted about him the golden bands of unwavering confidence of his friends. While Mr. Moore is quiet and unassuming in his demeanor, he is a pleasant and genial young man, a man whose company is sought and enjoyed by all. The young lady, thus capturing such a man, should thrice congratulate herself upon her victory.

Miss Ross has been for sometime the pride of Hartford's society. Having spent her youthful school days in Hartford College, under the tutelage of Dr. Wayland Alexander, she graduated with high honors in 1896. She is highly cultured and refined and is one of the most intelligent and accomplished young ladies of Western Kentucky.

This union is the result of a courtship, most agreeable in character, extending to a number of years, and it is hoped that that same congeniality of spirit may continue forever.

THE REPUBLICAN desires to congratulate both of these young people on the event of their marriage and wishes for their future unbounded happiness and prosperity on life's golden sea.

Commercial Hotel.
Farmers, business men and all visitors should stop at the Commercial Hotel during the Fair. Cool, tidy rooms and an excellent table. Rates $1.00 per day.

COLLEGE NOTES.
Prof. Morton and Shultz, as well as several of the students, attended the Teachers' Association at Beaver Dam Saturday. They report a splendid meeting.

Judge Jas. P. Miller was a welcome visitor at Ex Tuesday morning.

Mr. John H. Magan, of Sulphur Springs, visited students here on Saturday last.

Prof. Shultz made a flying trip to the county Wednesday morning.

Mr. J. D. Stewart visited relatives near Beda Saturday.

Mr. C. L. Patton spent Saturday with relatives at Pleasant Ridge.

Misses Minnie Rowe, Mary and Jessie Smith, and Mr. R. R. Riley were pleasant callers at Ex Wednesday morning.

Misses Florence Morton and Tillie Bach, town, and Mr. Oran Wallace, county, are among the recent matriculates of our school.

Prof. Shultz is needing some help in his spelling class. Would some one kindly consent to help the Professor?

The Adolphians held quite an interesting session last Friday night. Subject for tonight: Resolved, That nature is as great a teacher of Divinity as inspiration. The following officers were appointed by Chairman Bell for the ensuing term: A. E. Ellis, critic; S. M. Wilson, J. D. Stewart and C. L. Patton, censors.

The young men will please remember that the doors of our institution are always open for the reception of members.

ROSINE, KY.

Miss Kate Watts, of Louisville, who formerly lived here, is visiting Miss Rosa Thomas.

Miss Mollie Hunter, who has been quite sick, is improving rapidly.

Wm. Myers and wife left Tuesday for South Western Arkansas where they expect to make their future home.

Mr. Myers is one of the oldest citizens of the county and will be greatly missed by his friends and relatives.

Sam St. Clair is on the sick list.

Wm. Curley and family, of Louisville, are visiting the former's mother.

Mr. Dave Allen has moved from his farm to the Lewis property in town.

Esq. H. F. Myers and family visited R. Campbell Sunday.

Rev. Givens filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Sheriff Martin was in town Monday.

Mr. Robert Childs and family, of Horton, were the guest of Tom Allen Sunday.

Judge R. R. Wedding passed through town Tuesday.

Charles White, of Olaton, was the guest of Charles Crowder Saturday.

M. S. Ragland & Sons have added very extensively to their already large stock of goods.

Walker Myrtle, of Horse Branch, was in town Saturday.

The ice cream supper at the home of Mr. Wm. Thomas' Saturday night was very highly appreciated by all present.

Ohio County Fair.
You can't afford to miss the Fair. Come, bring your family and friends.

A New Business Enterprise.
A new bank will be opened at Livermore, October 1st. Mr. C. M. Thompson is President and Mr. A. B. Riley, Cashier. The capital stock is $15,000. The bank will be known as the Bank of Livermore and will be incorporated under the laws of Kentucky. Livermore is a business little town with about 800 population. It has four mills and two more under construction and is located in the very best country on Green River. It is at the confluence of Rough and Green rivers and is connected with Owensboro by the famous L. & N. R. R.

Our own Gus Riley is to be the cashier of the new enterprise. It can truly be said that no better young man could have been selected for that responsible position than Gus. His having had two years experience in banking business with his father in the Hartford Bank certainly qualifies him for the duties about to be assumed, besides his experience in the Bank here he is by nature a business young man.

THE REPUBLICAN most assuredly wishes him great success in his new vocation.

OFFICIAL PROGRAM

The Dewey Reception will be a Handsome Souvenir Well Worth Preserving.

The preparation of the New York State official program of the Dewey reception is now in progress, and orders are received from all over the country and abroad for this great popular souvenir of this national event, which indicates the interest manifested by the general public in the great reception to be extended to Admiral Dewey on his arrival in New York, September 28. The State legislative committee, of which Senator John Raines is chairman, has perfected all arrangements for the Dewey reception.

Mr. George T. Parker has returned from Washington, where he had been in consultation with the navy and other officials. The indications now are that from an artistic standpoint the State program will be equal, if not superior, to any souvenir program of like nature ever published. The official design adopted by the committee is an illuminated cover illustrating the life of Admiral Dewey from his entrance to the Naval Academy to the battle of Manila Bay, which is life-like and realistic. The vivid picture of the "Man Behind the Guns" is but a fitting tribute to the gallant men who fought with Dewey on that memorable May morning. The portrait of Dewey in the center, under the eagle and flags, represents the "fighting Commander" in his uniform as Admiral of the Navy of the United States. Scenes from the battle of Manila Bay, and other interesting matter, and among other features an engraved reproduction of the sword to be presented to Admiral Dewey, as well as a fac-simile of his commission as Admiral, signed by the President of the United States, and sent to the Admiral on behalf of the people and Congress of his country.

Portraits of national, State and city authorities will be likewise included, the Senate and Assembly of the State will be well represented by engraved portraits of the Senators and members. Many other features, together with the full official program of the naval and land parades, will make this program well worthy of preservation as a memento of an extraordinary event in the history of the Empire State.

Orders, enclosing the price, 25 cents postal note, should be sent to George T. Parker, treasurer, 253 Broadway, New York, and they will receive prompt attention.

"One good turn deserves another." Those who have been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla are glad to tell others about it.

Hon. George A. Prentice will speak at the court house Friday, September 23d, in the interest of the Democratic party. Everybody are cordially invited to be present.

BIG SEARCHLIGHT

Thrown on Goebel's Record in Constitutional Convention.

THE CLAIMS OF HIS FRIENDS

Are Riddled in One Volley of Facts From Approved Journal.

A FEW THINGS GOEBEL DIDN'T DO.

The Provision Prohibiting the Consolidation of Parallel Railroad Lines Does Not Belong on His List of Pious Accomplishments.

Mr. Goebel's friends have been busy in fabricating for him a record which may win popular confidence and support. Based, however, upon absolutely false assumptions and statements, it falls to pieces with the slightest handling.

The Hon. I. H. Goodnight, in a speech delivered at Franklin on the 21st inst., gave, according to the report of his speech in the Courier-Journal, "a sketch of Goebel's legislative career. He said Goebel framed that section in the present constitution which prohibits railroad companies owning and operating parallel lines, and discriminating in rates on long and short hauls, and the bill which made the offense of keeping a gambling house a felony in Kentucky."

No matter whether Judge Goodnight actually made these statements, or the Courier-Journal interpolated them in the report of his speech, it is in either event an effort to add Goebel's waning fortunes by claims which a moment's examination of the journal of the legislature and of the convention would have discredited. For the reputation of the bench, we trust Judge Goodnight does not in court accept as conclusive such statements as those on which he bases his defense of Mr. Goebel. As Judge Goodnight has not the time nor the inclination to furnish the evidence in this case, The Evening Post will do it for him, and in a form which will save him a great deal of trouble.

The bill making gambling a felony was something with which Mr. Goebel had nothing whatever to do. It originated in a crusade in Louisville against open gambling. The attorney of the "League" was Mr. John B. Baskin of the Louisville bar, now commissioner in bankruptcy, and this bill was drawn by Mr. Baskin.

In the legislature the bill was in charge of Mr. Dan A. Smith of Larue county. What Mr. Goebel's attitude was we do not know, but for the law as it stands the credit is due not at all to Mr. Goebel, but to Mr. Baskin and to Mr. Smith.

Next, as to the claim that to Mr. Goebel is due the credit for the constitutional provision prohibiting the consolidation of parallel and competing lines:

The original resolution looking to the prevention of the buying up and operating of parallel and competing lines is found on page 169, and is in the following words:

"Resolved, That no railroad or other corporation, or the lessee, purchaser or managers of any railroad or corporation, shall consolidate the stock, property or franchise of such corporation with, or lease or purchase the works or franchise of, or in any way control any other railroad corporation owning or having under its control a parallel or competing line; nor shall any officer of such railroad or corporation act as officer of any other railroad or corporation owning or having the control of a parallel or competing line; and the question whether said railroads are parallel or competing lines shall, when demanded by a party complainant, be decided by a jury, as in other civil issues."

This was offered by Mr. Twyman, the delegate from Larue county.

Mr. Edgington, page 171, offered another resolution on this subject almost identical with the resolution of Mr. Twyman, hardly so full and explicit. Both of these resolutions were referred to the committee on corporations, of which Mr. Boies was chairman.

The report of that committee is found on page 363, and the section 12 of that report is identical with the section of the constitution except for the omission from the section as reported of the word "bridge" and the words "or structure" in two places. The debate on this measure began on page 371 and ended on page 373, and Mr. Goebel did not offer any amendment, nor did he make any remarks in favor of the measure. Indeed, as there was no roll-call on this measure, there is nothing to show that he was even present.

Now let us take up the "long and short haul clause" of the constitution, for which credit is claimed by Judge Goodnight for Mr. Goebel.

On page 173 of the Debates of the Constitutional Convention, it is stated that Mr. Edgington, delegate from Harrison county, offered the following original resolution on this subject, as follows:

"It shall not be lawful in this state for any railway company to charge for freight or passengers a greater amount for the transportation of the same for a less distance than the amount charged for any greater distance, and suitable laws shall be passed by the general assembly to enforce this provision; but excursions or commutation tickets may be issued at special rates."

This resolution was referred to the committee on railroads and commerce, Mr. Whitaker, chairman, and section 15 of the report of that committee, with one or two immaterial verbal changes, is identical with the section now in the constitution. The debate on this measure begins on page 517 of the Debates of the Convention, and ends on page 518. Several verbal amendments were offered, but Mr. Goebel neither spoke nor offered any amendments as to this matter; in fact, two roll calls show that he was absent during this discussion.

The next matter of interest to the public in this connection is the constitutional provision, establishing the railroad commission.

The original resolution, with reference to this subject, was offered by Dr. J. D. Clardy, subsequently a member of congress, then a delegate from Christian county. This resolution of Dr. Clardy's will be found on page 142 of the "Debates."

Referring to page 166 of these debates we find a resolution offered by Mr. John D. Carroll of Henry, relating to the same subject.

The report of the committee on railroads and commerce, to which these resolutions were referred, in the first section thereof contained practically the clause which was finally adopted in the constitution. The debate begins on page 491.

The only part Mr. Goebel took in the discussion and passage of this measure was to offer the following amendment, which was rejected by a vote of 60 to 9.

"When jurisdiction is conferred on the board of railroad commissioners, all the power, judicial or ministerial, necessary to carry it into effect, is also conferred; and when in the exercise of jurisdiction within the purview of the authority conferred on said board, the course of proceeding is not pointed out, any suitable process or mode of proceeding may be adopted by the board which may appear most conformable to the spirit of the constitution."

So much then for the claims put forward by Judge Goodnight in behalf of a client who has absolutely no standing in court. He comes as a claimant for the property which by an unquestioned title belongs to other men.

As to the claim that Mr. Goebel had no particular interest in any of the constitutional provisions affecting railroads, with which the general public is most concerned. And as a member of the constitutional convention he pursued the same policy which has governed his conduct in the legislature. He is the author of that provision of the present constitution by which the "representatives" other than the immediate dependents of a person killed in a railroad accident are permitted to recover damages for the injury whereby the death was occasioned. He was looking after matters which affected law practice and did not trouble himself about discriminations in freight rates, or long and short haul distinctions. Nobody would criticize him for this, were it not that he and his colleagues are constantly trying to make it appear that he, and he only, has striven to protect the rights of the people endangered by corporate encroachment.

This is the second chapter on the career of William Goebel. The first was something with which Mr. Goebel had nothing whatever to do. It originated in a crusade in Louisville against open gambling. The attorney of the "League" was Mr. John B. Baskin of the Louisville bar, now commissioner in bankruptcy, and this bill was drawn by Mr. Baskin.

In the legislature the bill was in charge of Mr. Dan A. Smith of Larue county. What Mr. Goebel's attitude was we do not know, but for the law as it stands the credit is due not at all to Mr. Goebel, but to Mr. Baskin and to Mr. Smith.

LOTTERY CASES.

Full Examination of Goebel's Connection With Them.

TOOK A DIMINUTIVE PART

Flacked When the Time For Action Came at Washington.

TAYLOR MADE THE REAL FIGHT.

Prompt Action of Lottery, Irrespective of the Wabbling Tactics of Goebel, Secured the Decision of the United States Supreme Court.

The Evening Times, Mr. Goebel's organ, will have to be called down by its master. In its edition yesterday it inaugurated an investigation into one of the least creditable chapters in the professional life of Mr. Goebel, when it printed a communication relative to the lottery cases, signed "New Light."

As no one is apt to get new light on any subject from Goebel orators or organs, and as the whole purpose of the communication in question was to advance claims in behalf of William Goebel which are in direct conflict with the whole history of the case, we reproduce the statement, which is false in every implication, and correct it by a plain story from the official records. The anonymous slanderer thus attempts to poison the public mind:

"It hath been said that Mr. Taylor, the Republican candidate for governor of Kentucky, is a much abler lawyer than Mr. Goebel, the Democratic candidate, and Taylor had written a wonderful brief, to which Goebel did not contribute a line. It hath been said that a certain lottery case had pending in the supreme court of the United States while Mr. Taylor was attorney general for a long while, and that Mr. Taylor made no motion to advance the case."

"It hath been said that Mr. Taylor, when the case was at last called for hearing, agreed with John G. Carlisle to pass the case to the next term of court, thereby enabling the lottery vendors to operate the lottery for six months longer, notwithstanding the circuit court had charged the grand juries to refrain from indicting vendors of lottery tickets until the case was decided by the supreme court of the United States."

"It hath been said that William Goebel, while not so famous a lawyer as Mr. Taylor, had been attorney general of Kentucky, would not have agreed to postpone the case; that he would have said to Mr. Carlisle, 'I am sorry I can not accommodate you; were it an ordinary case I would take pleasure in granting the request, but this is a case of great public interest; the case has already been in the court over two years; your clients, notwithstanding the court of appeals of Kentucky has decided adversely to their claim, have, in the face of that decision, continued to sell lottery tickets in Kentucky.'"

"I could have moved the supreme court to advance the case, and had a decision in 90 days, in view of the fact that the supreme court had already decided in Stone vs. State of Mississippi the very question involved in the case, and that decision was against your clients. I failed to make that motion, and the people of Kentucky think I should have made that motion. You have had over three years to prepare a brief in the case. I simply expect to cite Stone vs. Mississippi, and rest the case there. You are too good a lawyer not to know that that case finally settles your case. I do not think you ought to ask me to postpone the case for six months, and therefore will not consent to pass it."

Governor Brown, Nov. 1, 1895, employed Senator William Goebel to represent the state in what are known as the lottery cases.

After the inauguration of Governor Brown's successor, Senator Goebel called on Attorney General Taylor and advised him that he had been employed by Governor Brown to represent the state.

He was told by the attorney general that he was glad to be so advised; that he was new in his office and very busy, and was asked to prepare a brief, which he promised to do.

After a time the attorney general communicated with Senator Goebel, asking that the brief be sent to be printed. After delay Mr. Goebel finally advised that he had not time to make brief, but that he would argue the case in the United States supreme court.

The attorney general went to Washington, arriving the evening before the case was to be called, and was exercised by his inability to learn of the whereabouts of Senator Goebel. He had already prepared a brief and hurriedly prepared a short argument. When the case was called, Oct. 12, 1897, ex-Senator Carlisle and Major D. W. Sanders appeared for the lottery company. Major Sanders told Attorney General Taylor that Senator Goebel would not appear, and suggested that the case be postponed. The attorney general objected, and the case was argued and submitted. After this had been done, Oct. 13, Senator Goebel appeared and asked permission to make an argument. His request was refused. He then asked permission to file a brief, which was granted. After waiting for some time and finding that no brief had been filed, the attorney general insisted on the case being reported.

The prompt action of the attorney general secured the prompt decision from the supreme court. All that Mr. Goebel promised or sought merely made delay imperative. The attorney general's oral argument was short, but it covered the case, and in fact and almost in substance, the opinion of the supreme court.

We thank the friends of Mr. Goebel for calling attention to this notorious case, in which there is no action, no utterance, no line that is creditable to Mr. Goebel; nothing from first to last that justified his appointment. So clear was all this even to Mr. Goebel that we believe he has never had the face to claim a fee, at least from the state, for his services.—Evening Post.

The Goebel speakers have persistently refused to divide time with the Brown speakers, and the Goebel committee is sending out the Macedonian cry, "Come over and help us," to speakers all over the country. This looks like the Goebel managers were afraid of something.

ALL WOMEN AGREE.

A druggist in Macon, Ga., says: "I have used Groves' Mother's Friend, and have never known an instance where it has failed to produce the good results claimed for it. All women agree that it makes labor shorter and less painful."

Mother's Friend

is not a chance remedy. Its good effects are readily experienced by all expectant mothers who use it. Years ago it passed the experimental stage. While it always shortens labor and lessens the pains of delivery, it is also of the greatest benefit during the earlier months of pregnancy. Morning sickness and nervousness are readily overcome, and the limbs relax the strained muscles, permitting them to expand without causing distress. Mother's Friend gives great recuperative power to the mother, and her recovery is sure and rapid. Danger from rising and swelled breasts is done away with completely.

HOME CURE FOR BLOOD POISON.

Beware of the Doctors' Patchwork. You Can Cure Yourself at Home. There is not the slightest doubt that the doctors do more harm than good in treating Contagious Blood Poison. Many victims of this loathsome disease would be much better off to-day if they had never allowed themselves to be dosed on mercury and potash, the only remedies which the doctors ever give for blood poison.

A housekeeper living in Pennsdale, Pennsylvania, had a severe spell of indigestion last Fall which was very obstinate, but after using about one dozen cartons Ripans Tablets, was greatly benefited, and now only uses them occasionally. I do all I can toward recommending Ripans Tablets, she writes, and expect to keep them in the house for future use. Am forty years old.

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

acts in an entirely different way from potash and mercury—it forces the poison out of the system and gets rid of it entirely. Hence it cures the disease, while other remedies only shut the poison in where it lurks forever, constantly undermining the constitution. Our system of private home treatment places a cure within the reach of all. We give all necessary medical advice, free of charge, and save the patient the embarrassment of publicity.
